

There's A New Day Just Ahead

Yesterday's no more,
I'm moving forward out the door,
Yes I have done it all,
Proud moments and the falls,
There's a new day just ahead.

Victory or loss,
I have stayed the course,
They've bashed and criticized,
Easily scrutinized,
There's a new day just ahead.

In the past, I have looked,
At the chances that I took,
I have no regrets,
Was put through the test,
Time and time again.

The tears, they would come,
My joy and pain, shared by some,
They said that there's no way,
That I would fall here today,
I will have succeeded in the end.

Yesterday's no more,
Spread my wings and I will soar,
Yes I have done it all,
Remained standing tall,
For the challenges that lie ahead.

Victory or loss,
I have stayed the course,
They've bashed me around,
Kicked me when I was down,
Left me for dead,
By the words that were said,
But there's a new day just ahead.
